CONSENT FORM

Title of Study: Tales From A Tin Heart - Adaptive Storytelling with Pepper

Study Number: [3000156 – Course Ethics number from instructor]

Department or Faculty: Applied Science

Student Investigator: Yvonne Wang (ynw2@sfu.ca), Jack Weatherbe (djw23@sfu.ca), Thimira Wijepala (tpw2@sfu.ca)

Course Instructor: Angelica Lim angelica@sfu.ca

INVITATION AND STUDY PURPOSE

This study is taking place to fill the requirements of coursework for a student researcher. You are being invited to take part in this research study because you are an individual who have expressed interest in technology and human-computer interaction, and also possesses limited experience with robotics, we believe that your unbiased perspective will greatly contribute to the evaluation process.

VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION

Your participation is voluntary. You have the right to refuse to participate in this study. If you decide to participate, you may still choose to withdraw from the study at any time without any negative consequences to yourself. To withdraw please contact the student researcher or course instructor.

STUDY PROCEDURES

If you agree to participate here is how we will do the study:

- If you decide to take part in this research study, here are the tests and procedures we will do:
 - During the study, you will listen to a storytelling done by Pepper
 - At the end of the study, you will be asked to fill out a short questionnaire
- We will ask you to come for a single session which will last around an hour. The one-hour session will include the time for both listening to Pepper's storytelling and answering the questionnaire.
- You will be recorded for the duration of the storytelling. The video recording will be used for no other purposes than for this research, and the people who will have access to these recordings will be us (Yvonne, Jack, Thimira), the professor, and the TA's. The recordings will be stored on Canvas.

POTENTIAL RISKS OF THE STUDY

- There are no foreseeable risks to you in participating in this study.
- We do not think there is anything in this study that could harm you or be bad for you.

POTENTIAL BENEFITS OF THE STUDY

- No one knows whether you will benefit from this study. There may or may not be direct benefits to you from taking part in this study.
- We do not think taking part in this study will help you. However, in the future, others may benefit from what we learn in this study.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- Your confidentiality will be respected. Information that discloses your identity will not be released without your consent.
- All study data will be stored on SFU Vault or Canvas

STUDY RESULTS

The results of this study will be used to complete course requirements for CMPT419.

Please note that in current best practices in research, electronic data is to be preserved for future use in open access initiatives. Data is normally uploaded to an online repository and these files are stripped of any information that could identify participants (e.g., names, email addresses), to ensure confidentiality.
